I enjoyed my stay at patricks home! The living room was nice and I felt very comfortable and relaxed being able to watch the television in a nice area! The kitchen had also had plenty of room for me to cook which I loved! The rooms could have been better but was okay for just a one night stay, overall I would still recommend the stay 😊 . Just needed a little more communication and having the cleaners do a little better with cleaning.

Our family stayed at Patrick's place after a Savannah State University ceremony. It was easy to get in. Coffee and tea was plentiful. Lot's of space for all of us. The downers were the extra room with the bunk bed was a bit cool even with the heat on. Other than that it was great! I will be renting again spring or summer!

Enjoyed our stay The only problem was there wasn't any heat in the large bedroom. There should have been some supplemental heat provided especially in November. Notification of this in advance would have been helpful. Overall we had a great time spending Thanksgiving with family and friends. Thanks for sharing you home with us.

Quiet and peaceful neighborhood. Very inviting and felt like home. Felt like a historic home with beautiful modern updates and beautifully decorated. The backyard was a nice oasis. The beds and pillows were so comfortable we all slept great. We actually slept in the room with the AC unit which I loved since it kept us nice and cool and helped us drift off to sleep. The master shower was refreshing. Loved the coffee bar section with even options for me (lactose intolerant). Great home and great host! Would love to stay longer next time.

Loved Patrick's house. Secluded in a quiet neighborhood but very close to Savannah as well as places like Tybee Island. My kids enjoyed running area in the large backyard and playing Connect 4. The house itself was clean and spacious, and just as described. The kitchen had everything we needed and as a Nespresso person myself, I enjoyed having a Nespresso machine for my daily (or twice daily) coffee. Lastly, Patrick was very response and on top of things. Even before checking in, he shared a list of to-dos / recommendations. Overall, a A+ experience.

My family are experienced Airbnb'ers, and this place is exceptional for its size, location, and interesting features. The attractions of downtown Savannah are less than ten minutes drive. All the furniture and mattresses were good, and there's an abundance of additional linens and available air mattress. Great selection of coffees and teas. Driveway is one car wide, but long enough for at least six vehicles.

This home had 5 live bed bugs that we saw on 3 of the beds. 2 of which were 1/4" big adult bugs.

Less than 12 hours after checking in, a large one was seen crawling on a pillow. Another one on a wall. The rest soon discovered on mattresses.

There was a ton of days old garbage at the driveway with 15+ trash bags. Some spilled out onto the street. Bugs all around the two cans. Add to that several of the bags were filled with bed sheets and towels. Coincidence?

I alerted the host and AirBnB support. Patrick communicated well and often. He apologized, said he brought out an exterminator that confirmed the presence of bed bugs, and that he may need to take the listing down temporarily. We checked out October 1st after 13 hours. He issued a refund, but was seemingly hopeful I wouldn't leave a review.

Also, there was a $10 per person fee for each person after the first 3. It's a 4-bedroom house with 7 beds. That fee structure is wild. We knew it when renting, just saying.

Response from Patrick

October 2025

Hi Chandon, so sorry to hear this stay didn't meet your expectations. Exterminators have confirmed the property is bed bug free. The property is regularly inspected and treated proactively with standard pest control procedures.

A group of 9 girls stayed at this rental for a bachelorette trip and it was great! We loved the outdoor space, and the living room and kitchen was large enough to fit us all easily. Having the nespresso was a huge plus for us as well! The house itself was in a perfect location and not far from downtown at all.

The only negative was that the bed in the master bedroom was broken with the bottom of the bed sagging towards the floor due to some planks being broken. The bed was still very comfortable though and it honestly wasn't a big deal.

All in all, we thoroughly enjoyed our stay, and Patrick was very helpful in the information provided, allowing us an extremely easy check-in and check-out process. We would definitely recommend!

This was a lovely place to stay in Savannah. A bit removed from the city proper but very convenient to get to. We didn't get to use it but the backyard was huge and full of activities. The house itself was thoughtfully decorated and very spacious, especially for only two people (we got to play Goldilocks and figure out which bed was just right). They had a lot of extra touches and amenities including the coffee bar and a well appointed kitchen with really everything you might need. There were a few minor aesthetic things here and there that need a bit of attention like some of the bathroom fixtures, but all in all it was very clean, comfortable and a great place to relax!

From the moment I arrived, I knew this place was special. Tucked away in a peaceful, welcoming neighborhood, this Airbnb exceeded every expectation I had — so much so that I ended up making it my home.

The space is beautifully maintained, spotless, and thoughtfully decorated with all the comforts of home and more. Every detail — from the cozy furniture to the fully stocked kitchen and soft linens — was clearly chosen with care. I especially loved the natural light and the relaxing outdoor space, perfect for morning coffee or unwinding in the evening.

The host was incredibly responsive, kind, and made the entire experience smooth and enjoyable. You can tell they truly care about their guests' comfort and take pride in offering a top-tier experience.

I had an awesome stay at Patrick's house on Airbnb. The new appliances and great backyard made the experience even better. I would absolutely recommend it!
