We had a great time staying here. It is in an area convenient to everything we wanted to do and there were good roads in all directions so nothing was hard to get to. It is also located in the delivery area of many local restaurants. The home seemed to have been recently remodeled, it's a spacious older home in a well established neighborhood with lots of live oaks dripping with Spanish moss. The neighbors Oleander bushes were in bloom while we were there and the breeze carried their scent into the screened in porch, one of our favorite places to hang out under the ceiling fan. From there we also saw and heard a good amount of backyard and marsh birds. The bedrooms had plenty of space for our suitcases (and an ever growing pile of shopping bags too) the closets were roomy and

The host did not share the door code with us before check in so we were stuck in the car with 5 kids while it was raining trying to figure out what to do. Reached out to VRBO, he had not shared it with them either, so we were unable to enter the residence. Attempted to contact the host but the call went straight to voicemail. The host did finally reach out 2 hours after check in stating the house was still available if we wanted to use it but VRBO had already got us set up in a hotel.

About the host

Hosted by Patrick Forelli

I have a passion for design, detail, and hospitality. I enjoy sharing my home and facilitating a uniquely personal travel experience for every guest.

Why they chose this property

It's in a perfect location, central to everywhere while very quiet with a suburb feel. The oak tress with Spanish moss give a scenic view and perspective as you turn onto the street. The river waterfront view is fantastic!

What makes this property unique

It's one of a kind to the great location near downtown with a private quiet neighborhood by the marsh, the screened in porch with a pool table, ping pong table, and 100 inch projector, or the spacious kitchen and luxury bedding. You cant go wrong.
