★★★★☆ · January 2026 · Stayed with kids

This place was really nice overall and we enjoyed our stay. We did run into a small issue with a couple of rooms not being cleaned when we arrived, but after letting the owner know, it was corrected very quickly. The cleaner did an excellent job getting everything taken care of....

This was our first time in Savannah and Patrick’s house met all of our needs! It’s tucked away in a quiet neighborhood and a close drive to the places we wanted to go! The house matched the description in the listing and the pictures were spot on! We had a great stay and hope to visit again soon! Highly recommend!

Patrick is a great host. He responds quickly and in constantly checking in to make sure things are good. We have had zero issues so far and will be continuing to book with him weekly for our Airbnb needs. We are in town working for the next few months and he has made being here a lot easier seeing how we are so far from home each week.

★★★☆☆ · June 2025 · Stayed a few nights

Patrick did communicate but he was aware of an issue with the air conditioner and didn't communicate that to us. He told us it would cool down after the sun went down but it was 76. Not enough towels and wash cloths. The reason you can't use the front porch is because the door goes into a bedroom. Patrick did offer us $100 and asked if it would affect our review

I chose Patrick's place for how nice the house looks, the pool table, and 100 inch projection screen. Watching the nba final with the cool night air on the porch was amazing. The bed was super comfy. The kitchen is beautiful and the shower has great water pressure. Its easy to find and Patrick provides great instructions. I will definitely book again.
