We're looking into it now—here's what you can expect next.

Hi Michael Woodcock,

Thanks for sharing your concern about potential home sharing activity in your community. We take these issues seriously, and we'll do our best to help resolve your concern.

Our team has officially processed your submission and has created a case number for you: A73069944

Here's what we'll do next:

- We'll review the Airbnb listing URL you shared
- Our team will then get in touch with the host to voice your concern and, if needed, take further action.
- We'll follow up with you after additional investigation. If we need to, we'll reach out for more information.

As a reminder, here's the information we received from you that we'll be following up on:
